- 21) To bring under income tax net all incomes including agriculture.
- 22) To take over the excess houses/buildings/lands owned by the people in excess of the limit prescribed by the Government.

I started my organization "We for red India" to achieve the above ends. Let all justice loving and honest living persons join in it.

Come on! Let us join together! Let us rise up our hands against all social and economic inequalities in India. Let all inequalities in India disappear on seeing our roarings and thunderings. Let socialist and equalitarian India emerge out. Do not fear. If you fear, even ants would laugh at you. People are sacrificing only goats and not lions. So be a lion and live as a lion. If we will, we could move the mountains. We could chains the waves of the oceans. We could pluck the stars from the sky. We could break into pieces even the volcanoes. That much power you have! Realize! Realize it at least now. Otherwise our present day Indian politicians would eclipse your life by enriching their life and by giving freebies to you.

Our Indian politicians had destroyed the democracy by giving freebies for votes. By receiving freebies or by giving freebeis for votes, your poverty, your penury, your tears, your sufferings will not change. Only your rights alone could change your life. Receiving freebies is equal to purchasing a painting by selling your eyes. Realize! Realize it at least now.

It is better to live a day as a lion than living 100 days as mouse. Let our voice shake India like earthquake. On seeing our roarings and thunderings the earth must tremble – air must tremble – oceans must tremble – existing political parties must tremble / Governments must tremble. Come on! Let us join together! Let us establish the Government of the poor people, by the poor people and for the poor people.
